

Customized coverage that goes beyond the warranty.

Your AGCO-built machine is a major investment. Protect it. And your business. Whether you're buying our equipment new or used, AGCO Protection offers something that farming rarely does. Like peace-of-mind. Control. Security. This specially designed coverage begins when your manufacturer's warranty ends. And it's your assurance that your AGCO machine will stay up and running so your operation does, too. With AGCO Protection, you'll be able to:

- Protect yourself against unexpected repair costs
- Protect your machine's re-sale value
- Customize your coverage to fit your budget and the way you farm
- Easily roll the cost of your coverage into your financing, or use your AGCO Plus+ account*

You set the terms. We'll follow them. AGCO Protection is more than a take-it-or-leave-it extended warranty. It is an actual insurance policy. It offers a variety of options that allow you to virtually customize your plan to your preferences and budget. Plus the protection is transferable to the next owner. And all the service repairs and parts are handled by trained specialists who know your machine inside and out—your AGCO dealer.
